

John Jarrard

For the past 27 years John has been an independent manufacturer's representative covering the 7 southeast states. John was the major driving force of one of the longest established representative agencies in Georgia. He co-founded F & J Squared more than 10 years ago. John is intimately familiar with the account base of the southeast and possesses an advanced technical background in electronic, electro-mechanical and industrial products and applications.